Sub: Appreciation for your remarkable contribution to IEPFA camp

Dear sir,

We would like to thank you for the tremendous support and contribution to the IEPFA (Investor Education and Protection Fund Authority) camp conducted by IPPB on 30th September and 05th October 2021 at your college. The IEPFA camp was very successful and we have opened around 140 IPPB savings accounts and done 80 Aadhar mobile number update transactions. The support of the staff members in arranging the camp is remarkable and we highly appreciate them. We look forward to extend our support and services anytime in future.

FEED BACK FOR WEBINAR
TOPIC - "PROJECT MANAGEMENT"
RESOURCE PERSON: MR. JAYA SUDHAN ON (28/09/21)

Sir/Madam, I am Ranjith Kumar S, from Bsc (CS) IIIrd year. I have attended that wonderful session was hosted by our department HOD and I wanna thank you who were making that situation. I know that the session was very much useful for those who were attended that session.

I wanna say a respectful thanks to Mr. Jaya Sudhan, who gave us a very much useful informations like about project management. Then he explained briefly how would it be like and to enter into that field and to go through it. I can understand the almost everything that he said, in addition I wanna say that though it was informative it was very much motivational for me. It feels me like something different, and one thing I was disappointed was I thought that he would come to our college. Otherwise my overall experience was excellent.

Thankyou.

What is Biotechnology?

- A combination of two words "Biology+Technology"
- Biology- Science of living organisms
- Technology- Practical application of scientific knowledge
- Therefore, biotechnology is the use of technology in the manipulation of living organisms to do practical things and provide useful products.
- Ultimate aim of the subject is to exploit the potential
