SEMINAR –HISTORY DEPARTMENT

On 4th August 2023, at 11:00 am, the University of Madras, in collaboration with the Dravidian Historical Research Center, organized a thought-provoking program at Periyar Thedal. The topic of the event was "Distortion in Indian History." The occasion witnessed the enthusiastic participation of students from Jaya College's Historical Studies department.

This one-day National Seminar brought together distinguished historians who shared their profound knowledge and insights with the eager audience. The seminar proved to be highly valuable for all the attending students, providing them with a deeper understanding of the complexities and nuances in Indian history.

The event, hosted by the University of Madras, provided an excellent platform for the exchange of ideas and intellectual discussions, fostering an enriching academic environment. Students from Jaya College's Historical Studies program had the opportunity to interact with eminent historians and gain valuable insights from their expertise.

Overall, the seminar served as a remarkable learning experience for all the participants, igniting a thirst for knowledge and a greater appreciation for historical research. The University's efforts, in conjunction with the Dravidian Historical Research Center, undoubtedly contributed to the intellectual growth and development of the students, leaving a lasting impact on their academic journey
