Assessment of Advanced Learners and Slow Learners

The College has a well-established counselling system and mentoring system. Students are assigned to identify the faculty who act as their mentors or counsellors. They conduct regular meeting with their student discuss their academic progress. A Student with less than 40% marks in 2 or more subjects in the Revision Examination - I, II and Model Examination [These Examination marks are utilized for Internal marks assignment] and having less that 75% attendance is consider as an academically slow learner. Counsellors keep a close eye on these students and keep their parents informed about their wards and their performance the internal examinations.

Table: Identification criteria of slow learners and action taken

Identification Criteria	Action Taken
Students scoring less than 40% of marks in Internal Assessments	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Faculty counselors follow the progress of the students regularly advising them about attending classes, making up for missed classes, and getting additional help.</li><li>2. Intimating their parents over the phone to counsel their wards.</li><li>3. Conduction of remedial Classes.</li></ol>
Students who fail in semester examinations	Conduct extra classes to those who failed in the previous semester subjects.

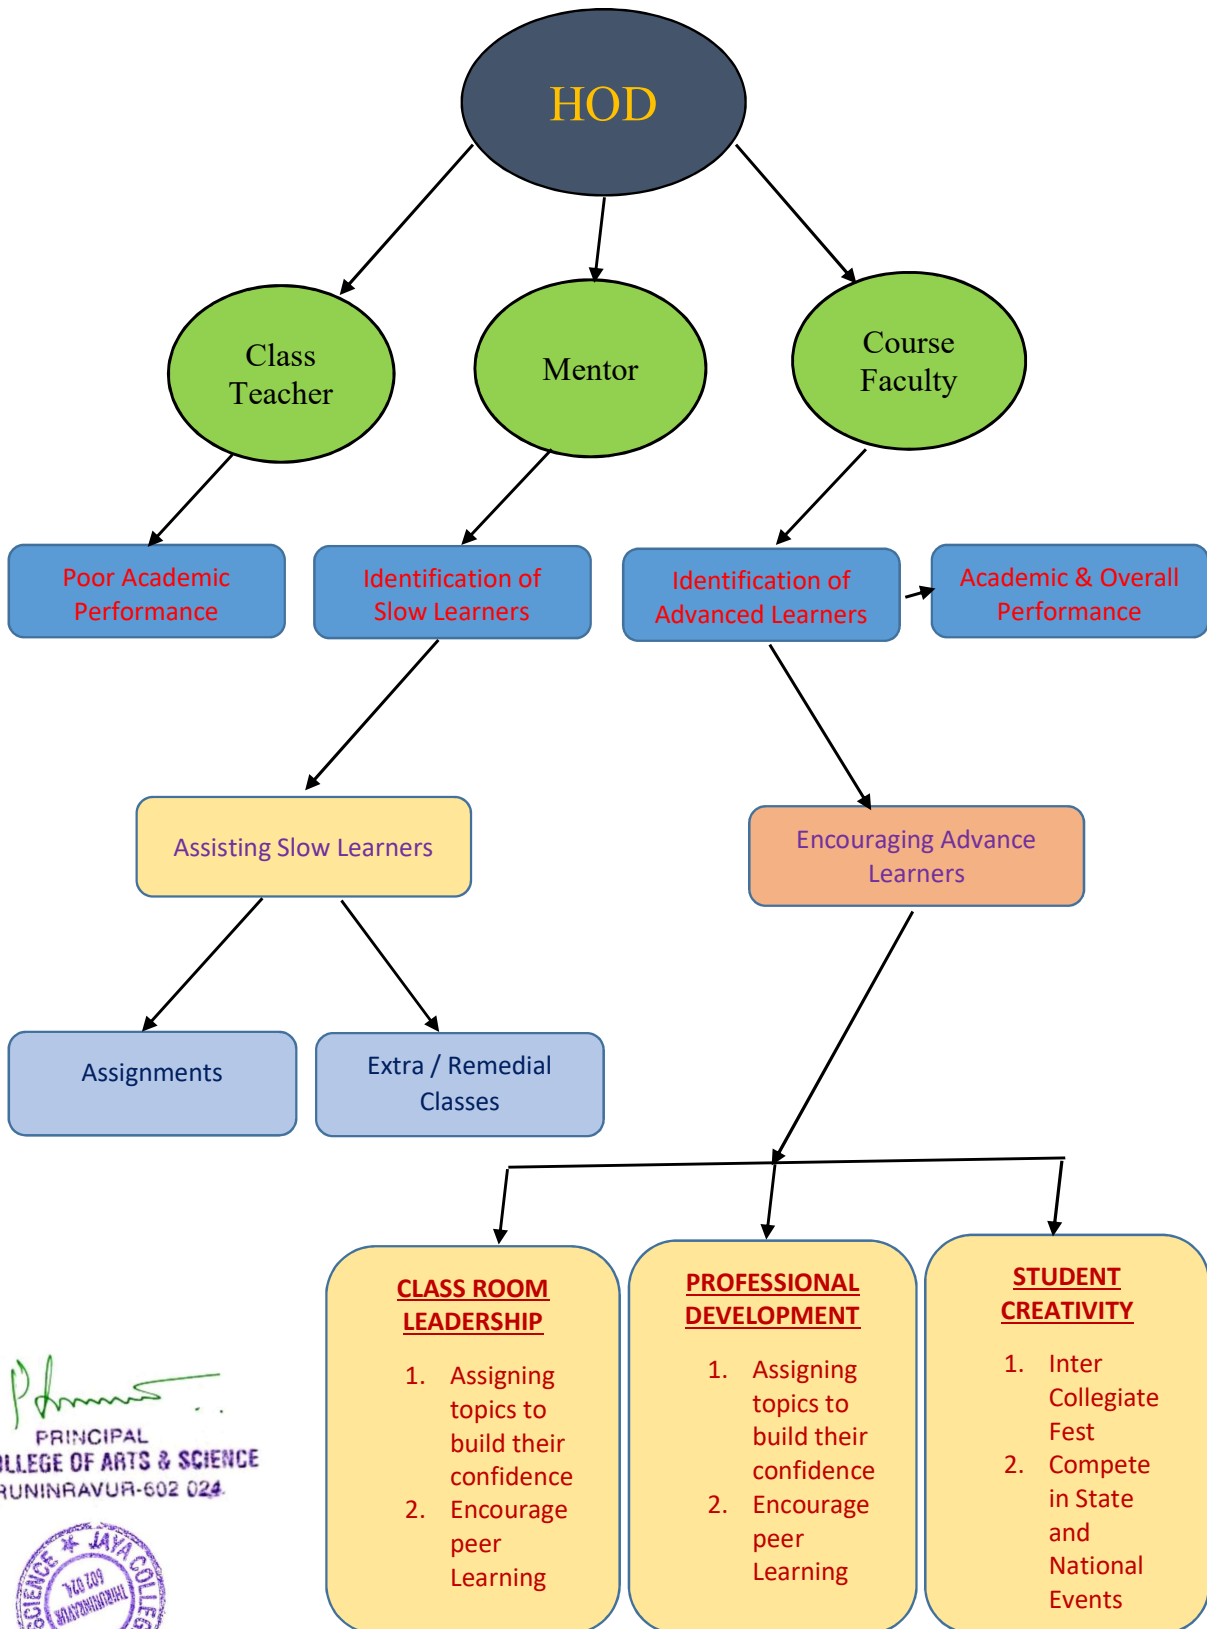

The Chart below depict that the class incharge continuously keeps tract of the academic performance of the slow learners. Mentors get engage with such students and assist them by helping in completion of assignments and arranging remedial classes. In case of advanced learners, faculty members encourages and motivate them to perform better than their best in academic as well as provides them different platforms for their professional development.
